Delivering growth with operational discipline and innovation

Summary

Infosys delivered a solid Q4FY26 with revenue growing 4.1%YoY in constant currency, while full-year FY26 revenue crossed USD 20bn with 3.1% CC growth, finishing within the upgraded guidance band. Large deal momentum was exceptional, with full-year deal TCV stood at USD 14.9bn, up 24%YoY, including 96 deals of which 55% were net new, reflecting strong client relevance and competitive positioning. Operating margin for Q4 stood at 20.9%, with full-year adjusted margin remained stable at 21%, as currency and Project Maximus gains are reinvested into AI talent, sales and partnerships. Financial services, communications, manufacturing and Europe were standout performers for the year. Free cash flow remained healthy at USD 3.5bn with conversion well above 100% of net profit. DSO hit a seven-year low of 78 days. For FY27, Infosys guided revenue growth of 1.5% to 3.5% CC with EBIT margin of 20-22%, factoring in AI-led productivity compression, a large European manufacturing client ramp-down worth 75-100bps headwind, on-site mix reduction impact of ~70bps, and wage hike headwinds, offset by strong AI services growth across its Topaz Fabric platform and continued large deal ramp-ups. While maintaining our long-term positive outlook, but we maintain our rating to HOLD with a revised TP to Rs 1,355 (16.5x FY28E EPS).
